Recommended Dog Food

Broken Tail Rescue, Inc. believes in the importance of good nutrition for our pets. That's why we only feed our foster dogs high-quality pet food without by-products, corn and nutrient-lacking fillers. We encourage our adopters to do their own research into different food brands – what you may think is high-quality because of enthusiastic marketing claims may not be as good as you think.

This website provides thorough reviews of almost all dog food brands and explains why the ingredients are good or bad: http://www.dogfoodanalysis.com/dog_food_reviews
